THE CRISIS OF THE AMERICAN WAR.

There have been the most unmitigated falsehoods gravely told with a lugubrious and pharisaical whine by our astute friends on the other side of the "big pond," but an article in the last number of the Edinburg Magazine, bearing the above title, and Herod's Herod, and if we did not know that it was really meant in earnest we should imagine it was a burlesque, and had got into the wrong publication, and had been published by mistake in the Edinburg Magazine instead of in the London Punch.—This same Edinburg seems to consider itself at the head of this kind of literature in the world, and although originally of Scotch descent, it has now become pretty thoroughly Anglicized. It has taken the vehicle since the war of our rebellion, of a great deal of "staid" intended to sustain the Southerners and the Slaveocracy, and the articles in which it was contained abound in the grossest falsehoods, the most misheard of blunders, and the most willful perversions.

This Blackwood's Magazine, "the oracle of British Toryism," as it has been well termed, while its antecedents all prove that it has been of the abolition type of the English school of politics, and utterly at war with the Democratic principle, has, all at once, become an advocate for Democracy, and a defender of Slaveocracy. Obsequiously, then, art a jewel, but not one that sparkles in the crown of John, "over the waters." Hear him: "The past month has brought us to the veritable crisis of the great civil war in America. Brought to bay upon their own soil, the Federals in their desperation have invoked to their aid the unutterable horrors of a civil war. A lie, John, a lie, simply this and nothing more. This Government, John, and will you please to get it through your very thick skull—this Government is now contending for its existence. One of the chief, if not the chief sources of power and means to maintain this war against the Government, is found to be the slaves of the rebel owners in the rebellious States. Now, the President, in order to sap the foundation of the rebellion has issued a decree of emancipation, to take effect on the first of January, by which the slaves of the rebels are to be set free. This is a blow to the military power of the Government can carry the same into effect—all States and persons loyal at the time, to be remunerated, and the disloyal to do the 'next best.' It counsels no insurrections, and were any to occur in the vicinity of the U. S. troops, these last would interfere to prevent an indiscriminate massacre. It is intended to denude the rebels of their greatest defence. Now, John, don't roll up your eyes in holy horror yet, for if we have reached a crisis, we have not as yet, reached the one against which you blundered your stupid nose in India—we have not blown any of the rebels from the mouths of our cannon, and covered the field of battle with a shower of human flesh. He adds: "It proves what every one in this country was loth to believe, that rather than let the Southern States be independent, rather than lose their trade and custom, the North would league itself with Beezebub, and seek to make a hell of half a continent." Talk about a "hell" John, wait "my boy," till there's a general settlement of the affairs of this mundane sphere, and you can then speak more understandingly on that subject. Now let us look at some more of his "facts." Here is one: "The finances of the South are at least in as efficient a state as those of the Federals—the debt it is incurring is infinitely less—and gold is not at so high a premium at Richmond as at New York." Now my astute John, where did you pick up that little bit of information. It is really news if that is what you were at, and is really worth the price of one of your numbers. Why, you old dotard, the currency of the United States is above par in the Old Dominion!

Again, speaking of the elections in the State of New York, he says they are "very important; for whichever party triumphs will have the appointment of seventeen members of the House of Assembly, with six members to Congress." Old Ebony now you have said it—any school-boy here would laugh at you and make game of you, if you would only come across the "pond." Horatio Seymour comes in for a share of unqualified praise, and is quoted as an oracle, and found to be the only Statesman we have in America, except the "American Burke"—Ben Wood, and his unwieldy (?) brother Rinaldo Rindini. Now isn't it disgusting to hear this sort of tories, who views Democracy in the same light as he does French Agrarianism and Red Republicanism, and hates them all with a common; to hear, we say, this tory commending the most ultra demagogues in the Democratic ranks. He daubs it on, it isn't done delicately or gently with a "camel's hair," but with a large sized white-wash brush. But as "Old Ebony" Blackwood is a thorough scholar and classical with all, and writes with the gravity and wisdom of an owl, (which he is) we will give it to him in a classical quotation from the polished Virgil, with a free translation:

He traped the animals at pectoral neck.

He keeps up their spirits and tickles their stomachs with bonied staves; for words, John, when used as you use them, are but staves, which indeed do tell "which way the wind blows," but convey neither sense, wit, reason nor truth, and are good for nothing but tickles. By the way, kind reader, this shows how the words of Seymour, Wood & Co., are interpreted abroad. Smoke that and reflect. But the most gigantic lie and willful perversion of all truth, and the most monstrous outrage of the political records of the Democratic party, of which these last named gentlemen are the "head and front," is to be found in the following statement in regard to the elections in New York, on the second Monday in November.—"These elections, he says, 'are very important, and are likely to give rise to great excitement, and the Democrats will have to contend against no ordinary force of rowdies and shoulder-bitters.'—There, Old Ebony, 'you've got me and done it' now. Just think of the pet humks of Mozart and Old Tamany, being held at bay by the ruffian bull-dogs of the Republican party. Oh, Byrners, Byrners, your prestige is gone.—When the day comes that decent people can frighten away your myrmidons from the polls, and get a chance to vote, your laurels are withered. Look to them, Marshall. Now, only think of it, to sit down seriously and write and publish it to the world as an emanation from authority. That the Democrats of New York are in danger of being kept from the polls by shoulder bitters or rowdies, will not leave a button on a pair of pantaloons within the sacred precincts of the Old "Wigwam," and bring a large tailor's bill against you John, and were you to come over here Old Ebony, and say that on the rostrum at Old Tamany, you may depend upon it, Intervention, Mediation nor "all creation" couldn't save you. Why, John, there hasn't been a decent man to the polls in the city of New York for the last quarter of a century without insult and shoulder bitters from these same democratic imbecile pet leubs. But, John, your stupidity is chronic and has ceased to be either noteworthy or amusing.—The old proverb says, "It is easy to kick a dead lion"—and it is much easier to kick a dead Ass—and your evident dotage indicates that your sands are fast running out.

Britania has been called, in poetical language "the mistress of the seas, and no one is only of the sea, for she seizes and steals all of God's creation that she can 'lay her hands on.' Eat a good dinner of roast beef and plum pudding, John—wash it down with a flagon of "brown stout," and then—molte pastore—smooth down your stomach, and lie down—(don't lie in any other way, say more), grant, and go to sleep, and take a good nap—and we will not disturb you, till we think it is time for you to wake up, and then, when we get ready, we will put a flea in your ear.

Local News.

Information Wanted.—The following letter was written to the brother of a soldier by the name of Schofield, who was wounded, and it is feared, was either taken a prisoner by the rebels or has since died. His mother resides in our city, in Howard street. Her address is Mrs. John W. Schofield, No. 14 Howard street, and any information from any source will be most thankfully received. We publish this letter in order if it should come to the knowledge of any person who knows of him or his situation, such knowledge may be communicated to the missing man's friends:

CAMP CONFEDERATE, Near Alexandria, Va., Dec. 3d. Dr. E. SCHOFIELD.—Dear Sir:—Yours of Sept. 10th is just received. The name referred to was intended for Williams. He was shot while gallantly springing to a charge. He was some five yards in advance of his company, on that memorable day, which is the best evidence of his courage and bravery. Where or to what extent he was hurt I cannot say, as he was not afterwards seen. I deeply sympathize with his afflicted family in their anxiety to learn his fate, but if their worst fears should be realized, it must be some consolation to know that he died like a soldier, rushing to the charge, and the shouts of victory to crown his efforts. I am, sir, very respectfully yours, JOHN A. McDONNELL, Capt. 28th Mass. Vols.

THE WESTMINSTER.—This steamer, we understand, got off from her "grounding" without damage, and she will proceed to New York to-day.—Captain D. K. Keneran, her commander, says that she came into the harbor in a gale and in the night, and made the best anchorage that he could, although it was disastrous to himself and also to several of one boatmen.

SUFFERING OF THE ARMY.—It is heart rending to read the significant telegrams in regard to the sufferings of our soldiers from the cold weather. It will be seen by our telegraphic news to-day that five men were frozen to death on Saturday night, and that one of them belonged to the 6th R. I. battery. No name is given.

MISSISS.—This our friend "George" of the Fall River Journal met with many more mishaps—has any one stole his clock again, kicked him, or has he got out of paper? What's the matter. He has "turned up missing" this week and the Journal is won at. What is the matter "George"?

EVESING SCHOOL.—We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. H. W. Clarke's evening school. Mr. Clarke is well known as an efficient teacher and our young men can pass their evenings in no more useful way than by attending his school.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Philip Stockton has purchased of Charles Devens, the lot of land at the corner of Kay and Touro streets, for the sum of $4500, and has contracted for the building of a mansion thereon, immediately.

DISCHARGE.—Surgeon J. B. Greeley of the 1st R. I. Cavalry has been honorably discharged on account of physical debility.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE ALABAMA.

THE VANDERBILT ORDERED AFTER HER.

SURRENDER OF WINCHESTER TO GENERAL GEARY.

GREAT QUANTITY OF GOVERNMENT SCRIP STOLEN.

New York, Dec. 7.—The Herald says it is stated that the Navy Department has received reliable information of the whereabouts of the Alabama, and that the Vanderbilt would immediately sail to look for her.

The Herald has a Harper's Ferry dispatch stating that Gen. Geary, with 3500 infantry, twelve pieces of artillery, and fifty cavalry, marched upon Winchester on the 2d inst., and demanded its surrender, which was complied with, the people exhibiting many signs of joy at his arrival. He reports to Gen. Slocum, that having left Harper's Ferry on the 1st inst. he met the enemy's cavalry, under White, Henderson and Baylor, at Charlestown, and routed them with some loss in wounded. He marched into Berryville the same evening, and again met the enemy, draw him into a trap, killed five and wounded eighteen, and the same evening bivouacked three miles beyond Berryville. Next day he advanced beyond the Oquaga, skirmishing with the rebel cavalry and infantry, and bivouacked in Ash Hollow, between Berryville and Winchester. Our troops captured 100 horses and mules and several wagon loads of flour belonging to the rebel army. At Winchester, twenty-five rebels who were unable to escape were paroled. Seventy-five conscripts claimed protection, which was granted. Five of our own prisoners were released. Gen. Geary, in pursuance of orders, then returned to Harper's Ferry, though large deputations of citizens begged him to remain. Our only loss was one man slightly wounded.

A special dispatch from Washington to the Times says that certificates of $5000 each, to the amount of two and a half millions, have been stolen from Treasurer Spinner's desk. Fortunately, they were unsigned, and measures have been taken to prevent the engraving of any more of the same kind.

Use of the Fishing Season.—Schroeder Joseph Story, Cruise, arrived from the Bay on Tuesday morning, being the last of the fleet to arrive. Mackerel have been very scarce in the Bay for the past month, and the weather quite rough. Some of the vessels have brought in rather small fares on their second trips, but a majority of them have done a good business. With the exception of two vessels, who are pursuing the George's fishery, the fishing business is closed for the year and the vessels hauled up.

There will be a large fleet in the Newfoundland trade this season, as some fifty sail or vessels are making preparations to leave, and two have already started. This branch of our foreign commerce is gradually increasing from year to year. It was commenced in the winter of 1856, at which time there was but one vessel engaged in the business, and has been gradually increasing up to the present time, providing moderately successful to those interested. It is far less perilous than the George's fishery, and will, we think, eventually supersede it to a great degree, as fresh herring are getting to be quite an article of food in the cities, to say nothing of the large quantities used by the George's men for bait. The Newfoundland trade of 1858-59 bids fair to prove lucrative to those engaged in it.

It is a remarkable fact that there have been no disasters attendant upon the mackerel fishery the past season. We are informed that the insurance Co. have not been called upon for even a partial loss—a circumstance which has not occurred since the establishment of the office, as there are generally more or less losses in the fishery every season. Notwithstanding the heavy losses in the George's fishery, the business of the year will show an increase over that of last season.—Cape Ann Advertiser.

The Hanks expedition which sailed from New York, is now at sea, moving southward to Fortress Monroe, which will be the final point of departure. The destination is still kept a secret. A day or two since the following conversation took place between the General and a member of his staff: Staff Officer.—General, the members of your staff are desirous of knowing something about the destination of the expedition, so that they can take proper clothing with them. General.—A very natural desire, certainly. Staff Officer.—We would like to know whether we should take light or heavy clothing? General.—(With his accustomed gravity)—Take both kinds, sir, take both kinds, and you will not fail to hit the nail on the head. Staff Officer.—Good morning, General. General.—Good morning, sir.

That's the kind of Work we Want.—When Gen. Banks left New York, he said to his friends: "We go to rebuild the flag of the Union, and sustain the Constitution, and may God grant we may be successful."

Yes General, every true heart responds, may God grant you success.

Political Position of Senator Arnold of R. I. The following card from Senator Arnold appears in the Washington Chronicle of last Friday morning:

"In the classification of Senators in to-days paper you mark me as 'Rep,' while the two Representatives from my State are marked 'Union,' which on strictly party designation should be my mark also. I was elected Lieutenant Governor two years ago against a violent Republican opposition. At the same time the Representatives were chosen. Our party designation was 'Constitutional Union.' My election to the Senate was nearly unanimous, the few votes against me being Republicans; my own party and the Democrats supporting me unanimously, and the Republicans nearly so. 'Union' is therefore my proper mark. Please correct in to-morrow's issue, and oblige your obedient servant, S. G. ARNOLD, United States Senator from Rhode Island.

Gravely Women in the Rebel Ranks.—While the late expedition of Gen. Stahl was out on a portion of it met a squad of rebel cavalry at Upperville and gave chase, when it was discovered that two women were riding with the rebels. An attempt was made to capture the whole party, who were ordered to surrender, but the rebels showed fight and shots were exchanged, wounding several on both sides. One of the women was shot in the leg, and while she lay bleeding on the ground, her companions fled. She was conveyed to a house, surgical aid procured, and everything possible done to make her comfortable.

The alleged abuses of the court of concurrences are to be investigated by a congressional committee.

In Milwaukee, substitutes on the day after the draft, were bringing $500 each.

Small gold coin has not been made at the Philadelphia Mint for a long time past. The exchange now consists mainly of $20 gold pieces for private parties unable to order.

Druggs is scouring the country around Morrisboro' and Shelbyville, with foraging expeditions, who are ordered to leave but one hundred and twenty pounds of meat in each family, taking all surplus meat for the rebel army.

About the 6th of January the Treasury Department will issue $200,000 daily in postage currency, and rising that sum to one or two dollars. In ten and fifteen the department is now issuing five or six hundred thousand dollars daily.

The Sorghum Sugar they manufacture in Ohio is as white as the best New Orleans; the crystals are large and translucent as honey, and the flavor is equal to any sold in the Cincinnati market.

The President has discovered that "it is not so easy to pay something as it is to pay nothing, but it is easier to pay a large sum than it is to pay a larger one, and it is easier to pay any sum when we are able, than to pay it before we are able."

The California merchants are now paying their Eastern debts in legal tenders. By the last steamer one could purchase a draft for $1000 by paying $500 in gold, in gold, so that the California trade is just 50 per cent.—a handsome profit and easily made.

Prince Alfred of England is named as the probable successor to King Otho. A retired merchant whose sons of life have nearly run out, suggests that the Prince of Wales would be a better choice for the throne of Greece.

Arrangements have been nearly completed in New York for redeeming the soiled postage stamps of which the amount held in that city is estimated at more than half a million dollars. The redemption will probably commence this week, and we hope the new currency will be speedily furnished in sums to meet the demand and put out of use the intolerable sticking plaster.

Capt. Peabody of the bark Harriet Spaulding of New York, has arrived home, his vessel having been captured by the rebel steamer Alabama on the 19th ult., and blown up with 75,000 gallons of kerosene oil on board. The captain and crew were put in irons and kept on board and water, until taken on board the British brig Firenze, from Pictou and landed at Fall River.

Women and Children Cheating Tobacco.—A Missouri letter in the Dubuque Times says tobacco is used among the natives in the rural districts indiscriminately by both sexes, children as well as adults, both for chewing and smoking. A foraging party near Hartsville, recently called at a house where they found a woman and thirteen children, the three eldest being girls, and all "chewing" a "poor" of tobacco. One of the party remarking that she was the first woman he ever saw chew tobacco, the old woman exclaimed, "Well, now, what was you brought up? Never seen a woman chew tobacco? Guess you must be round much. Don't you have any ladies where you was raised?"

It was stated at a meeting of the New York Historical Society, on Tuesday evening, that the will which was stolen some time since on the advance of our army into Virginia, has been sold to the British Museum! This was originally deposited in Fairfax Court House, where it lay in the archives up to a few months since. The dictation and writing was Washington's exclusively; it was the last production of his pen, and gave evidence of those traits of character which won for him immortality. He placed his signature at the end of every page, and distinctly stated that the will was dictated by himself. When our troops captured Fairfax Court House the will, with other valuable documents, was stolen.

TWO AND A HALF O'CLOCK.

GEN. BANKS.

WASHINGTON, 8th.

Mr. Linn, Private Secretary of Gen. Burnside, says that the large number of letters addressed to the General upon private and individual matters to which his personal attention is expected or required, are not the least of the labors which occupy his time.

Were it possible, he would gladly respond to each and all of those friendly letters, but demands of service render this impossible.

Nevertheless he offers this as his reason for any seeming neglect of his numerous correspondents, he expresses the wish that generally he may be spared as far as possible, all demands upon his time and attention, except such as relate to the public service.

NAVIGATION CLOSED.

St. Catharine's Co., C. W. 8th.

Canal navigation is entirely stopped by ice. Several propellers are frozen in.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Baltimore, 8th.

Col. Sullivan, U. S. Commissary here, to-day awarded the following contracts:—Surgeon, Bennett & Co., N. Y., 100,000 pounds of Rio Coffee, to be packed in barrels at $71.57 cents per hundred, to the same parties 100,000 pounds do., packed in sacks at $51 per hundred, and to a Philadelphia firm 200,000 pounds Rio Coffee, roasted and ground and packed in barrels at $28.30 cents per hundred. All the pork was taken from parties in the city, four thousand barrels of mutton at prices ranging from $14.50 to $15.75, and one thousand barrels of prime mutton at $15.24.

THE INDIANS AT CAMP LINCOLN.

St. Paul, 8th.

A body of 150 citizens armed with hatchets, knives and other weapons, forced their way through the guard with the avowed intention of murdering the Indian prisoners confined at Camp Lincoln, but were surrounded, captured and released on parole.

The Governor issues a proclamation urging the people of Minnesota not to throw away their good name by acts of lawlessness, that the people have just causes of complaint at the tardiness of the Executive action, but ought to find reason for forbearance in the absorbing cares which weigh upon the President. If he declines to punish them, then the case comes clearly within the jurisdiction of the civil authorities.

THE FIRE.

McGregor, 8th.

The fire Sunday evening destroyed Ware house occupied by M. Munger & Co., Stacy and Staines, and Skidball and Harvey. Loss $15,000.

MARKETS IN OHIO.

Cincinnati, 8th.

Flour dull at $3.20 a 6.15. Red wheat 1.03 white 1.10 a 1.12. Whiskey firm at 35. Hogs 4.75 a 4.85 a 4.90. Receipts 10,000. Lard quiet. Gold 40 exchange on New York per. The insurance reports of smoke that arose last evening on the opposite side above the hills overlooking Frederickburg and seeming to extend for miles in a western and north-western direction demonstrates that the presumed retrograde movement if made at all was meant only to bring the enemy under better shelter in the ravines between the first and second Range and in woods upon the latter from the prevailing North-west winds. The apparent fact of the continual presence of the great body of the rebel army in front of the right grand division can be but gratifying to Gen. Burnside for reasons that will be developed in a few days.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, 8th.

Attorney Gen. Bates is preparing and has completed a most elaborate opinion affirming the citizenship of persons of African descent under the constitution and laws of the United States.

DISTURBANCE AMONG THE SOLDIERS AT NEW YORK.

New York, 8th.

A serious disturbance occurred among the soldiers engaged near East New York Sunday evening. William Sullivan private in Co. C, 1st Mass. Volunteers, was shot dead. S. H. Taylor Co. 1 24th Maine volunteers was seriously wounded and a hotel kept by a German named Schellin was burned to ground. The difficulty arose between Schellin and Sullivan and the members of 14th regiments themselves by burning Schellin's house. Schellin made his escape and has not yet been arrested.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

The Washington special correspondent of the World says that the statement that the army of the Potomac as a portion of it has crossed the Rappahannock is without any foundation. Direct arrivals up to a late hour from headquarters state that there has been no change in location of the army of the Potomac. Specials state any movement involving the probability of fighting is considered by our general impossible during this inclement weather. Every wounded man would die. With great fire, log houses and embankment Palisades under their legs the troops keep tolerably comfortable. All the reports that some of our forces have crossed the river are premature. We have not crossed a man across the Rappahannock or attempted it. Major Gen. Lewis Wallace will probably be ordered to Nicotini with his staff.

NO MOVEMENTS.

Officers of high and low degree have come up to-day from the army and report that there can be no movement in the present condition of the rocky, storming weather, &c.

SEVERE WEATHER—THE ARMY SUFFERING.

FALMOUTH, 8th.

The severe weather of the past two days has not abated this morning. It is reported that five men were frozen to death during the frost of Saturday night. One of these men is said to belong to the Sixth R. I. Battery.

A CHALLENGE AND A REWARD.
$500 REWARD.

I beg leave to inform my friends and the community, that from recent arrangements made by me, I NOW claim more than a good faith, which shall be paid in cash to any chemist or physician, of good and responsible standing in the State, who, on my analysis and satisfactory evidence, can find anything in the BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, &c., etc., NOW for sale
by me, other than what is found in the PURE
GASTES and UNADULTERATED ARTICLES.
Knowing from experience, that our citizens in general labor under the impression, with good cause, that pure liquors cannot be had, I have much to regret, that this impression is so generally held, and from the reliable source with which I NOW contract for my supplies in these articles, do make my reputation as a man, my integrity as a merchant, that if the liquor NOW sold by me as pure
"are not so," then none can be had from the vineyard in France, or from any part of the world. As a friend of my country, I challenge chemical analysis, and invite all to come and test for themselves, when they will learn that NOW, "if never before," pure liquors can be purchased in Newport, by bottle or measure, for medical or family purposes, and as cheap as in any other place in the State.
W. L. ALDERSON, Newport, R. I.
N. B.—The main inducement for all to give me a call is, that my figure for the grand prize is $500.
